

Consecration to Mary

Immaculate Queen, my Celestial Mother, I come onto your maternal knees to abandon myself in your arms as your dear child, and to ask of You, with the most ardent sighs, the greatest of graces: that You admit me to live in the Kingdom of the Divine Will.

O, my dear Queen and Mother, to thee I (your name), consecrate myself without reserve; and to give thee a mark of my devotion. I offer thee during this day and forever my eyes so that I may see how you want me to see; my ears so that I may hear how you want me to hear; my mouth so that I may speak how you want me to speak; my heart so that I may love how you want me to love; and my whole being so I may be totally yours. Therefore, O Good Mother, as I belong wholly to thee, protect, and defend me as thy property and possession.

May the Lord bless me and keep me from all evil and may the souls of the faithful departed through the Mercy of God rest in peace.

Amen
